

Dr. Bhim Sen Singhal

MD, FRCP, FRCP, FAMS

Dr. Singhal's name ranks among India's most eminent neurologists. Currently, he is the Director of Neurology Department at Bombay Hospital & Institute of Medical Sciences. Prior to this appointment, he was the Honorary Professor and Head of Department of Neurology at The Grant Medical College, Mumbai.

Dr. Singhal has served in the capacity of:

- Chief – All India Medical Panel, MSSSI
- Chairperson – M. S. Society
- Chairman – Asian & Oceanian Parkinson's Disease & Movement Disorders Society
- President – Indian Epilepsy Society; Indian Epilepsy Association; and Neurological Society of India

He is also a member of:

- ◆ WHO Working Group on Multiple Sclerosis and Parkinson's Disease
- ◆ The Board of Studies in Medicine & Allied Subjects, Bombay University
- ◆ International Advisory Committee of the Archives of Neurology
- ◆ Editorial Advisory Board of Annals of Indian Academy of Neurology

Dr. Singhal has been actively involved in the organization of several national and international conferences, at many of which he has also been a guest lecturer.

Dr. Singhal has been the recipient of several awards which include:

- Dhanwantari Award for Life Time Achievement Award for outstanding contribution the growth of Neurology
- The Priyadarshni Academy National Award for outstanding contribution to the field of Medicine
- Dr. B.C. Roy National Award for his services towards the development of Neurology in India
- Karmayogi Puruskar Award, Bombay Medical Aid Foundation.
- Wockhardt Award for Medical Excellence in Neurology
- The Giants International Award for Excellence in Medicine
- University Gold Medal in Physiology

Dr. Singhal has authored 'Training and Research in Neurology in Developing Countries' besides many other books and over 200 articles on Myasthenia Gravis and Multiple Sclerosis that have been published in prestigious medical journals.